Case Number: 2025-00009560

Case Synopsis: During the early morning hours of April 20, 2025, A Champaign County Sheriff's Deputy coincidentally arrived at a convenience store in the 100 block of S Mattis during a burglary in progress. The deputy observed the female suspect running out of the store with stolen merchandise and was advised of such by the employees. The deputy turned around to follow the suspect who observed the deputy and fled the area. The suspect drove over the median onto Mattis and quickly traveled northbound then west on University Ave. and north on Victor to try to elude the deputy. After the deputy caught up to the vehicle it quickly entered a driveway, and the deputy initiated an investigative stop. During the investigation, the deputy found the Chips Ahoy cookies and Skittles candy that was reported stolen from the store. The deputy also noticed the driver showed signs of alcohol impairment and when the driver was asked how much she had to drink, she replied, "Not enough." After completing a DUI investigation, the deputy determined probable cause was established for DUI alcohol. The suspect was arrested and transported to the Champaign County Jail where she was booked for burglary, retail theft, DUI alcohol, and DUI with a BAC greater than .08.
