Announcements:

Rodriguez says the Labor committee is working with the union and is hampered by misinformation in the public sphere. Asks that if there are questions, please see her and forward any questions from others to her as well.

Locke says the Aging Care Study folks will visit us at the next COW and that restaurant week starts Jan 24th this year.

Stohr thanked Ms. Greer for the great work at the MLK event. He has been participating in NACO video events and mentions that the Prairie Rivers folks will be at tonight's meeting in abundance.

Discussion of Agenda:

We will remove the CFA vote off the consent agenda and move that to next month.

We have a closed session tonight and will move that early in the agenda so the lawyers don't make so much money.

Thorsland mentions something about Board member Wilson.

We have a property sale from ELUC tonight, a good deal.

The Finance votes are all straightforward tonight and it is noted by Ms. Jett that the Nursing home building was sold.

Adjourn at 18:22

There were no snacks.
