Case Number: 2024-00022608
Case Synopsis: On Wednesday (08/21/24) at approximately 1932 hrs, a Champaign County Deputy Sheriff conducted a routine traffic stop in the city of Urbana, after observing the driver of a vehicle operate his smart phone device while driving. The violator vehicle's license plates/registration had also been registered to a completely different vehicle. Once the involved vehicle was stopped during this incident, it was confirmed that the driver had placed license plates on his cargo van, that had not been registered to his vehicle. The driver was later released after citations were issued to him and the license plates used improperly were seized. The driver was allowed to transport his vehicle home to his residence and ordered not to operate it until proper registration could be obtained.
