Case Synopsis: On Tuesday (06/03/25) at approximately 1714 hrs, Champaign County Deputy Sheriffs were dispatched to a residence in the Somer Township, for an in-progress home invasion. At that time, the reporting party had called 911 and stated that an individual had been kicking in their front door with a gun in their possession. During this incident, deputies arrived along with officers from the Champaign Police Department. Following an interview with all parties involved, there was no evidence to suggest that a home invasion had occurred or that a firearm had been involved. Two involved parties admitted to entering into a physical altercation that day, however, neither party wished to be a victim of any crime. At the conclusion of this incident, one individual was found to have possessed a warrant for her arrest. That female was placed under arrest for the warrant and later transported to the Carle Hospital in Urbana for medical clearance.
